

iNet Wales:

Membership and professional development 2015/16

Why join iNet Wales?

Join iNet Wales, the schools' network for primary, secondary and special schools in Wales, to unlock a range of powerful benefits for all your staff members and students, and collaborate with purpose.

KNOWLEDGE

Increasing the knowledge you need to get to the next level

- Network and learn from other headteachers, practitioners, school staff and students at termly regional iNet members group meetings for school leaders, and contribute to national policy by engaging with the Welsh government.
- Take part in the iNet National Conference and engage in professional dialogue with leading international educational thinkers.
- A new dedicated members website - the Exchange - where you can access publications, insights and quality-assured resources.
- Receive fortnightly news updates on education news and issues, SEN updates and half-termly research radars.
- Access an offer from Iris Connect, experts in video professional learning, to gain five free licences.

COLLABORATION

Raising the bar by collaborating with other schools

- Our programme of study tours to inspirational schools across the UK and overseas lets you explore new creative teaching and curriculum solutions first hand.
- Two dedicated iNet Wales education leads (Paul Stock and David Wylde) to give independent advice and help connect you to school expertise nationwide.

EMPOWERMENT

Empowering your students and teachers

- Free access to our Student Leadership Accreditation - a formal way to champion and celebrate pupil leadership skills in and out of school.
- Opportunities to showcase your school regionally and nationally through our conference, case studies articles and publications which can be featured in our half-termly radar.
- Share best practice across the network by hosting events.
- Achieve national recognition by receiving one of our well respected national awards.

In addition to all this, your iNet membership gives you reductions of 30% and more off the standard price of iNet's high-impact professional development programmes and events to develop teaching and leadership at all levels of your school, including:

- Aspiring Senior Leaders
- Developing Leaders
- Developing Pastoral Leaders
- Lead Practitioner Accreditation
- Teacher Effectiveness Enhancement Programme (TEEP)
- the prestigious iNet Wales National Conference.

TEACHING & LEARNING PROGRAMMES

TEACHER EFFECTIVENESS ENHANCEMENT PROGRAMME (TEEP)

If you need to reinvigorate teaching right across your school, there's no room for tinkering around the edges – you need a CPD choice that is proven to work. TEEP is a thorough, systematic, whole-school approach to enhancing all teachers' effectiveness, whatever their starting point.

With learning and collaboration at its core, it builds on the existing expertise in your school to help teachers reimagine pedagogical practice - and achieve great teaching for themselves. Over 9000 teachers have benefited from the TEEP approach over the last 12 years. And in England this year, Ofsted formally recognised the transformative impact of TEEP, with participants' results showing massive improvements against national averages.

TEEP is suitable for schools at all levels to enhance classroom practice. In-school training is available for whole school delivery.

LEAD PRACTITIONER ACCREDITATION

This is an action research-based approach that lets you develop, recognise and reward the best practitioners in your school, using their work to promote a culture of learning.

This accreditation can provide 30 credits towards an MA.
