

SSAT Framework for Exceptional Education

Our school improvement solutions are built around the ten strands of the SSAT Framework for Exceptional Education (FfEE). Designed to support you with the process of self-review and strategic development planning, FfEE offers a principled approach to school improvement that takes you beyond the statutory inspection frameworks.

The full SSAT Framework for Exceptional Education is available to you as part of SSAT membership.

ssatuk.co.uk/school-improvement

TEACHING AND LEARNING
Effective learning behaviours Positive behaviour for learning Explicit learning process Leadership of learning	Climate for learning Respectful relationships Appropriate stretch and challenge Purposeful learning environments	Variety of teaching approaches Creative strategies and techniques Effective assessment Collaboration in learning	Culture of reflection Developing learning skills Identifying and addressing barriers to learning Learner independence
Our flagship programmes and resources , including the SSAT Teacher Effectiveness Enhancement Programme (TEEP) , SSAT Lead Practitioner Accreditation , and the Embedding Formative Assessment pack, drive impact where it counts – in the classroom.
PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE
Principled curriculum design Curriculum intent Personalisation Breadth and balance Ongoing curriculum review	Engaging with evidence and research Undertaking and using research Developing specialist knowledge Culture of innovation	Engagement with key stakeholders Positive and embedded relationships Learner, parent and governor/trustee role in school improvement Engagement with all groups
Our expertise, CPD opportunities and resources will help you build a curriculum that's personalised to all your students, use research to improve practice, and ensure your governors and other stakeholders can confidently tackle and contribute to positive change.
LEADERSHIP
Leadership through moral purpose Principled vision and values that promote social justice Evidence-informed decision making Commitment to leadership development and system leadership	Professional learning Professional learning Collaborative practice Staff progression routes	Quality assurance Strategic use of data and benchmarking Accountability Self-evaluation, monitoring and target-setting
From ambitious lead practitioners to CEOs who want to develop their expertise, we help hundreds of professionals expand their leadership skills and opportunities . Our Peer Review Programme and CPD , focused on quality assurance, accountability and use of data, will help build capacity and ensure you are always Ofsted-ready.			