

SSAT Leadership Legacy Project: launch event

Programme

Tuesday 9 October 2018

Ambassadors Bloomsbury Hotel, London

08.30-09.00	Registration
09.00- 09.15	Welcome from SSAT Sylvia Paddock, Director of Operations, SSAT
09.15-10.00	Leadership insights – a personal journey Sir David Carter, Former National Schools Commissioner for England
10:00-10:15	Questions and Answers with Sir David Carter Hosted by Tom Middlehurst, Head of Policy and Public Affairs, SSAT
10.15-10:45	What makes a good leader in times of change? Dan Belcher, Senior Education Lead, SSAT
10:45-11:15	Getting to know you Interactive roundtable discussion Leadership Experts and Leadership Fellows – structured introductions
11.15-11.30	Refreshments and networking
11.30-12.30	Insights into the current education landscape and what it means for schools Tom Middlehurst
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14:15	Leadership insights, a personal journey Geoff Barton, General Secretary, ASCL
14:15-14:30	Questions and Answers with Geoff Barton Hosted by Tom Middlehurst
14.30-14.45	The impact of the Leadership Legacy Project – A Leadership Fellow alumni's perspective Graham Pullen, Teacher of Physics and Lead Practitioner Designate, Harris Academy Chafford Hundred & Jodie Greenhough, CAL History and SCITT Lead for History, John Taylor High School
14.45-15.00	Break
15.00-15.45	The logistics Sylvia Paddock and SSAT's Project and Relationship Management teams
15.45-16.15	What did we learn today? Interactive roundtable discussion Leadership Experts working with Leadership Fellows to distil key outcomes
16.15	Closing comments Sylvia Paddock