

Leading Edge Conference 2026

Monday 9th November 2026

'How Do Strong Schools Stay Strong? Maintaining high performance in times of change.'

Venue: Broadway House (Make Venues), Tothill St,
London SW1H 9NQ

This day offers the opportunity to connect and collaborate with Leading Edge colleagues. Our focus this year connects the work we have been doing around the question 'How do strong schools stay strong?' with the conversations at last year's conference around inclusion.

09.30 – 10.00	Registration
10.00 – 10.15	Welcome Alex Galvin, Senior Education Lead, SSAT
10.15 – 11.15	Keynote Pia Sinha, Chief Executive, Prison Reform Trust
11.15 – 11.45	Refreshment Break
11.45 – 13.15	Maintaining high performance in times of change Introduction: Dr Keven Bartle, Director of Education, SSAT Headteachers' Panel: - James Granville-Hamshar, Headteacher, St John the Baptist School - Zoe Morris, Executive Headteacher, Chorlton High School - Liam McGillicuddy, Headteacher, Bishopshalt School Chaired by Rob Carter, Executive Headteacher, St Paul's Catholic College and chair of the Leading Edge Headteachers' Steering Group.
13.15 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 15.00	Keynote Great leadership, great inclusion provision David Bartram OBE, Director, Prescient Education
15.00 – 15.15	Closing Reflections
15.30	Event close

Please note that this programme is still subject to change*